What's Pittsburgh white metal? I will send updated DWO for both. What days are you planning? So you aren't at Brooklyn or Pure Earth? Who's the RMs there?

Yes, that was us. Not going to kickoff Pittsburgh White Metals until after Labor Day. Working on getting it set up from home. Was going to email you requesting some hours for Joe and I to go up to HTC and NFB and address the small list of things to do. Figure if Joe goes with me I can get everything done in one day, travel up early in the morning return in the afternoon once complete.
